

Dolomite Winter Games in CLAUT 27-28-29 January 2012

My Dear American Fans,

We are pleased to invite you to the first edition of: DOLOMITI WINTER GAMES 2012.

We have created a huge sporting event that will develop in 3 days, where fans and participants will challenge themselves in a variety of sport disciplines on snow and ice.

This event is located in Claut Valcellina, Pordenone (Italy). The location is 610 meters above the sea level and is the focal point of the Dolomiti Friulane, which were registered as part of the UNESCO World Heritage two years ago.

Last year the city of Claut hosted the world championship for the Alpinism sky competition. Claut's Valley are naturally furnished with cross country and downhill tracks, and a fantastic ice skating rink, which is the main meeting point of the Italian National Curling league.

The real scope of this huge event is to have fun and gather all passionate of Winter Sports together. The small fee requested will be donated to the kid's hospital "Burlo Garofalo", Trieste, and the "C.R.O.", Aviano.

A good number of famous Italian national athletes are invited though the three days, their presence will depend on the own competitions and availability.
